The Little Wizard

By Kristopher Lewis

Hello there. Welcome to the story of a little wizard. Today, you will be my little helper. Your job is to color and draw a few things in our story. Lets start with coloring our wizard's clothes and hat.

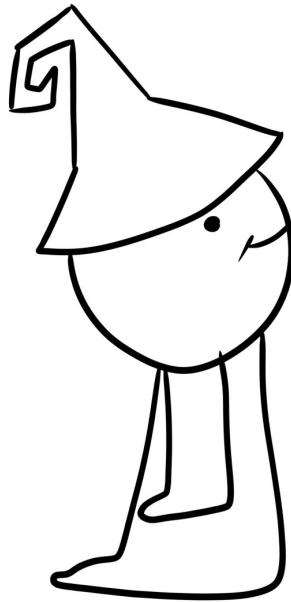

Our wizard friend is off to face his greatest challenge: a dragon! But before that, he had to walk through the forest. He saw a frog on a log, a little fox, pretty flowers, and a curious deer.

Our wizard friend is coming.
Why don't you draw something for him to see.

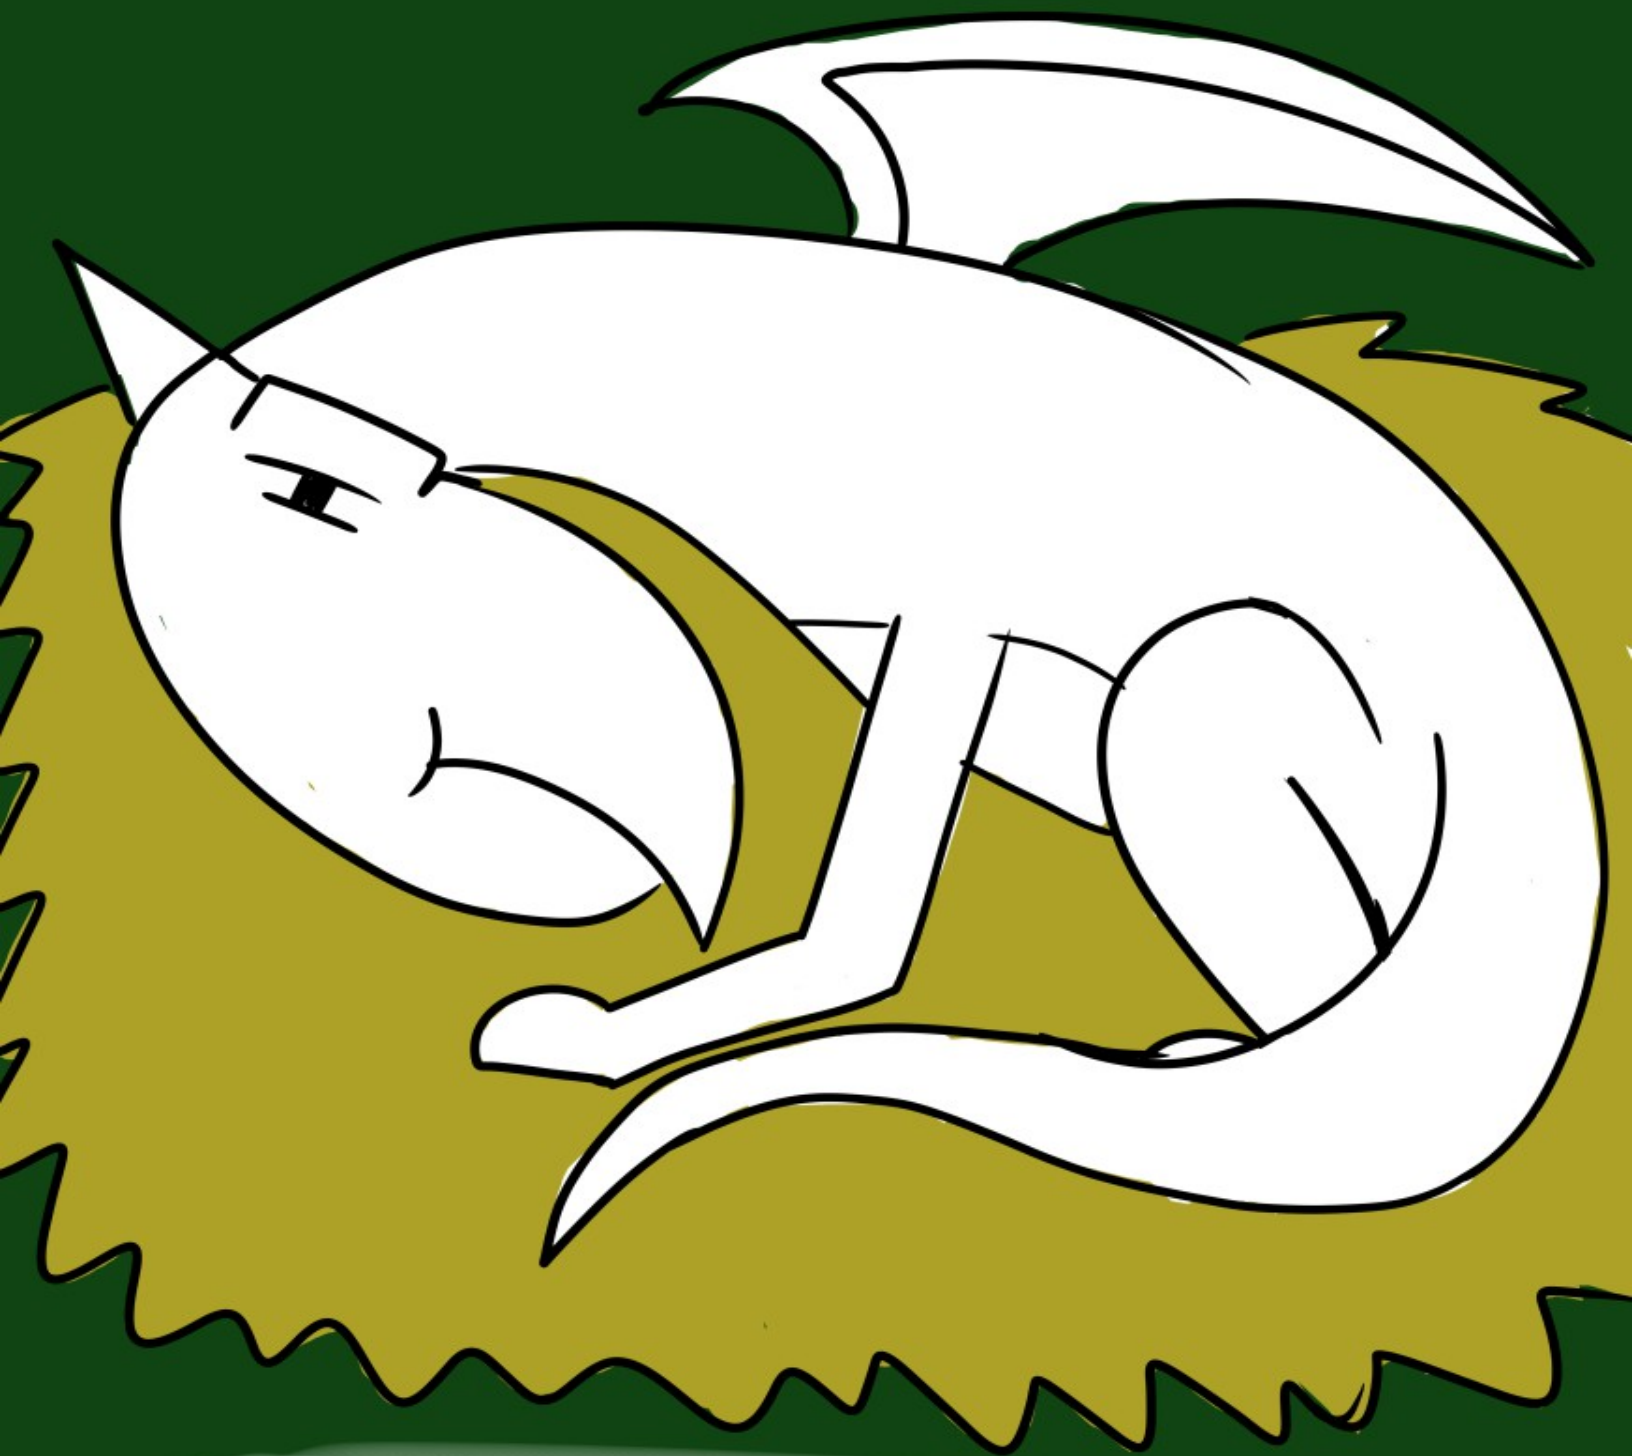

Oh my! It looks like our little wizard friend found the dragon. I wonder what color it is.

The little wizard casts his spell.

“HOLLY POLLY HULLA BALLU!”

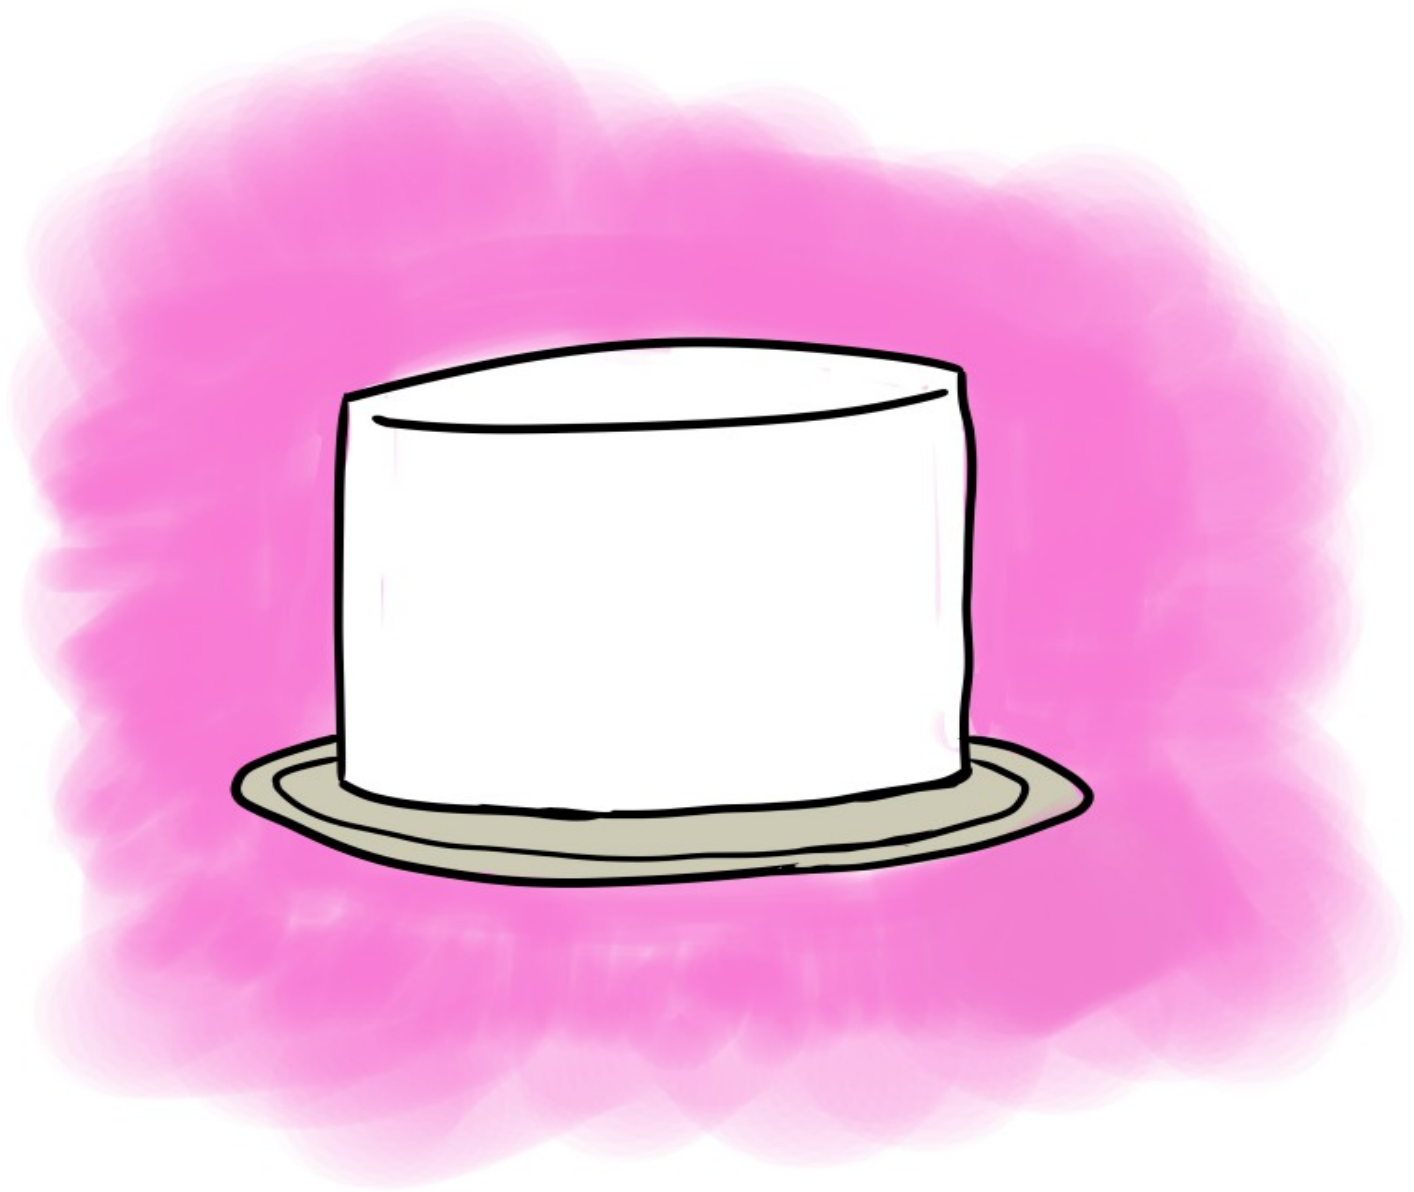

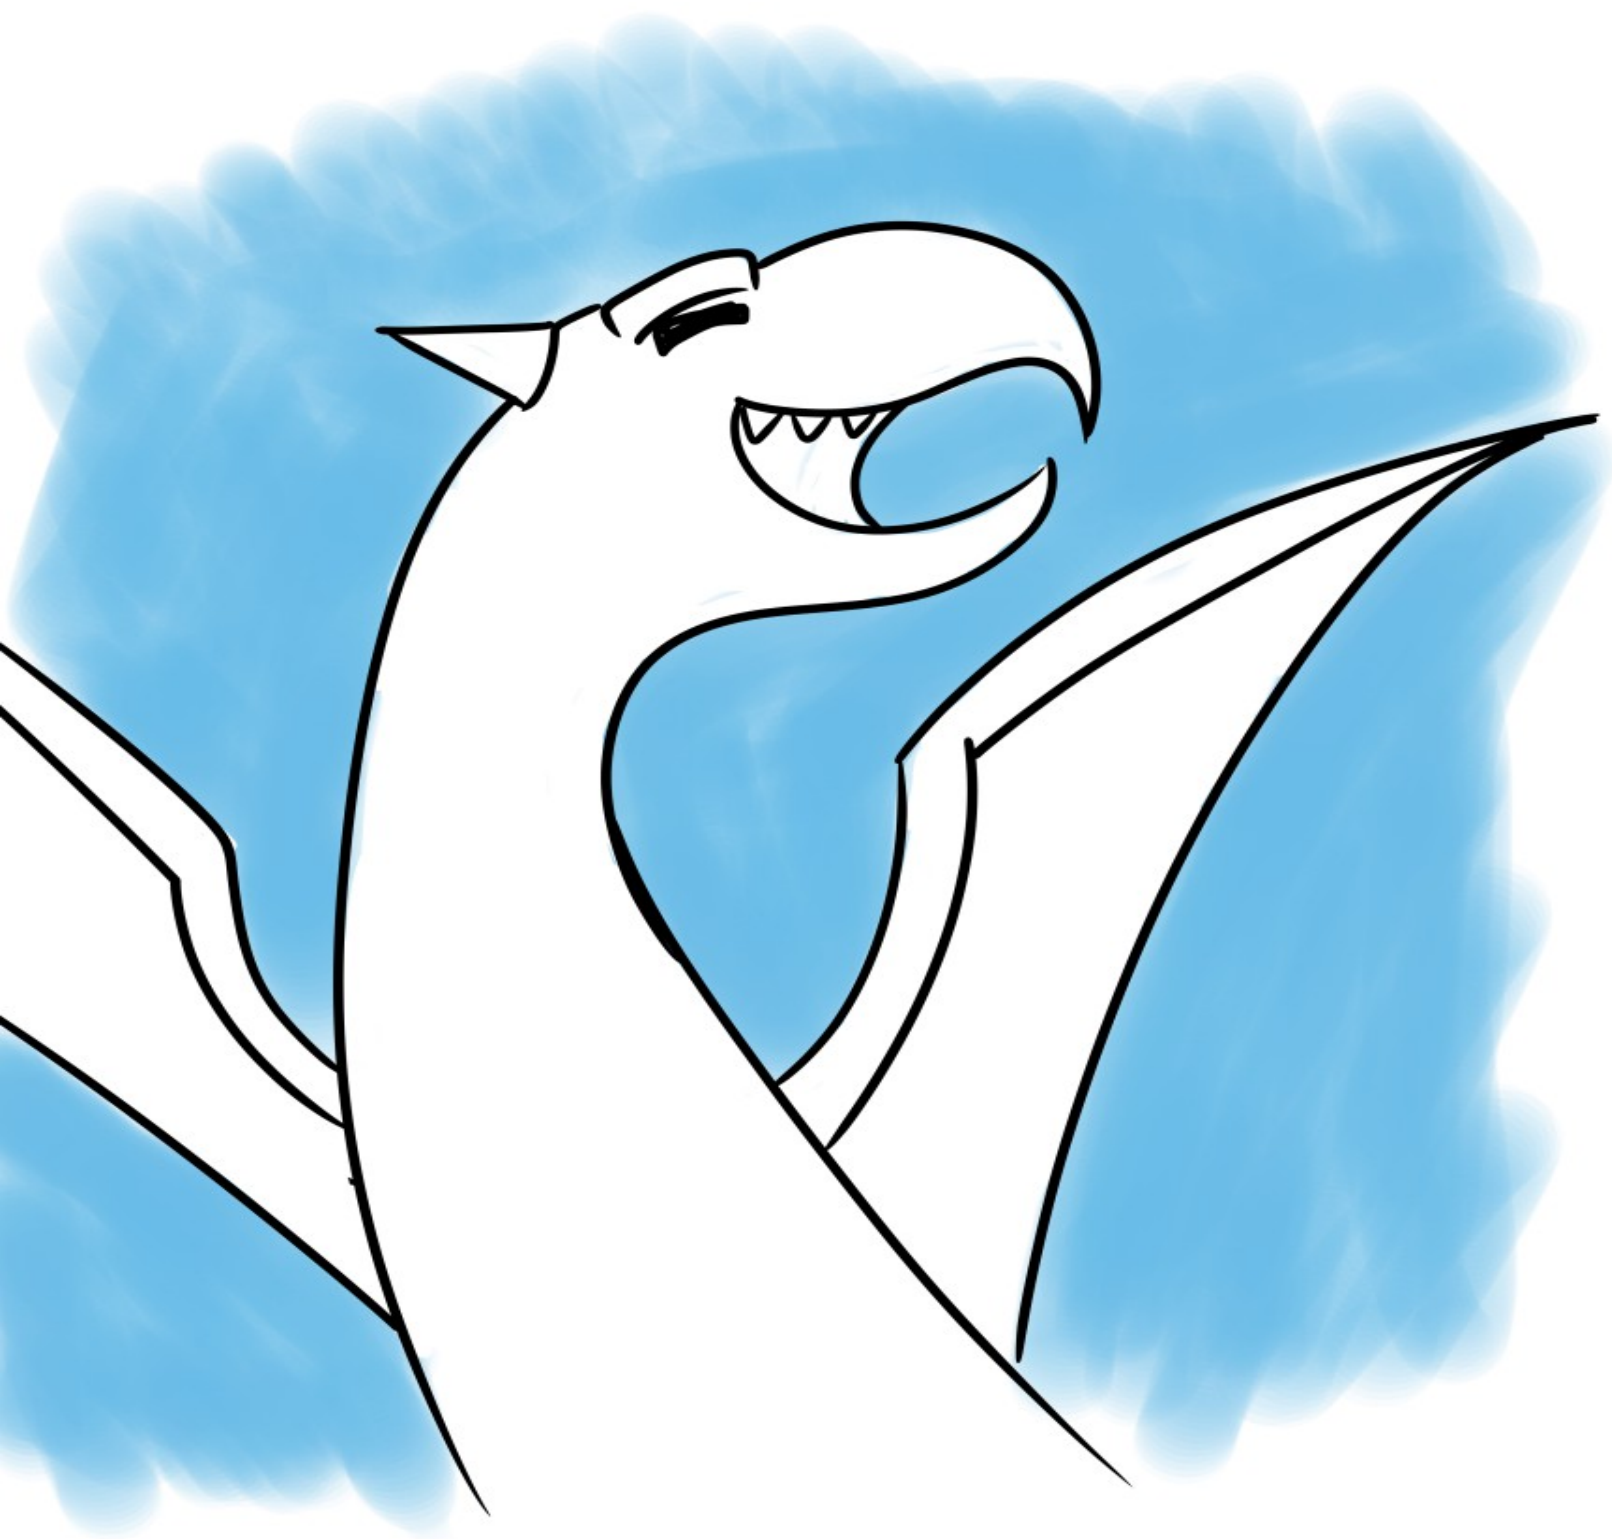

It looks like he woke the dragon up!
What will our little wizard do now?

It looks like our wizard friend needs another spell. He waves his staff and shouts:

It looks like he made a cake. Why don't you add some toppings and decorations.

It looks like the dragon is very happy with our cake!

And it looks like our little wizard made a new friend. I wonder what other adventures the two will have.

END.
